

Role as Adjunct Faculty

Doane College

In 1995 and 1996, I served as a adjunct faculty member for Doane College remote classroom program. Four different classes of graduate students (Summer 1995, Fall 1995, Spring 1996, and Summer 1996) were trained in various instructional technologies and their integration into classroom instruction. Web development, multi-media creation, and print material development were all aspects of these classes.

Dana College

In 1997, I served as an adjunct faculty member for Dana College, teaching an online class in the methodologies of teaching online classes. Over 30 students from Nebraska, Nevada, Florida, and Georgia studied and discussed effective design of web-based instructional materials.
